Biography:

Big Mucci (Dat 71 North Boi) is known around the world as “The International King of Line-Dance Music.” Born Mark Wynn, from the birth place of Rock & Roll (Cleveland, Ohio) Big Mucci served his country as a US Marine, and is well-known across the globe for over the last 17 years for the line dances he recorded with his group 71 North, and also as a solo artist.

With Big Mucci’s new release “Shuffle, Step, Slide: The Linedance Movement” 2014 looks to be a breakout year for this seasoned veteran. The 10 track EP includes the smash hit single “Biker’s Shuffle” which has over 10 million combined Youtube views, as well as new linedance hits, and a step by step instructional DVD to teach his fans how to do each dance. There’s also a bonus track, the “Line Steppers Slide” remix featuring fellow Gold selling R&B artist “Cupid”! (Cupid Shuffle).

“Simply the best!!! The way Big Mucci captivates his audience is amazing.”

Press:

“Big Mucci made me look at line-dancing differently. He taught me a true appreciation for the essence of the whole line-dance culture. Big Mucci is a true line-dancer.” – Thrill da Playa, founder of 69 Boyz, platinum selling recording artist

“From 8 to 80; blind crippled or crazy, Big Mucci’s music gets any party poppin’!” – D. Lorand Jackson, Chairman, Ohio Hip-Hop Awards & Music Conference
